

MUSIC FACULTY VACANCY
SCHOOL OF MUSIC
WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

POSITION	Horn
RANK	Instructor full time, one-year term appointment.
SALARY	Commensurate with qualifications and experience.
QUALIFICATIONS	Masters required. Demonstrated success as a performer and teacher.
RESPONSIBILITIES	Teach studio horn, horn methods, brass and woodwind chamber music, and perform with the Western Brass Quintet. Other assignments to be determined by the needs of the School and the qualifications of the applicant.
DATE OF APPOINTMENT	August, 2003
SCHOOL OF MUSIC	The School of Music, along with the Departments of Art, Dance, and Theatre is a part of the College of Fine Arts and has 41 full-time faculty and 13 staff, approximately 420 music majors, and NASM accreditation. Degree programs include Bachelor and Master of Music with majors in performance, music education, music history, music theory, composition, music therapy, and jazz studies.
UNIVERSITY	Western Michigan University, a Doctoral/Research Universities-Extensive institution, enrolls approximately 29,000 students, with 25 percent at the graduate level, and has approximately 800 faculty. The University consists of seven degree granting colleges, a graduate college, and an honors college. It is located in Kalamazoo, Michigan, a musically active metropolitan community of 250,000 located midway between Detroit and Chicago.
APPLICATION	Please send a letter of application, detailed curriculum vitae, three current letters of reference (placement file accepted provided letters are dated no earlier than 1999), cassette tape/CD of recent performances (tape/CD will not be returned) and transcripts to:  Richard N. O'Hearn, Director School of Music Western Michigan University Kalamazoo, MI 49008-3831
DEADLINE	Review of files begins immediately and continues until filled.

Western Michigan University is an Equal Opportunity Employer. In addition, it has embarked upon a vigorous affirmative action program and encourages applications of women and members of minority groups who are qualified for this position.